

REACTION TO THE OF
 contrast with the of the the id-passive and fragile gave an of All his training has gone into this the lacks in positive in the he
 for in passive endurance and of t$ dme to a less highly developed nervous and also to his in the transiency of this Hfe, yet the

be endures suffering, and even the of to impress the European.
 The two most saHent of in
the eyes of its European students, were the of
the individual, and the domination by the and hierarchy were everywhere SBC! by rites that gave Oriental i and both attracts and repels the If arc by the element of fashion in life impervious to spiritual adaptation. Under

the Oriental is a mass of pmzeling of and training have made him bold and timid, realistic and He be trolled in the face of suffering and but im&tipportably arrogant* without in the of seen obstacles. When thrown off the to lie has trained, and away from his the shows an mwnlTOLied the bHity gives the of but it hi* a few years of contact a to off
for
 cmtiiries seemed to the of wd to underneath a for
 At the time when the 10 disinter their from the to with a wondering eye* the a of selMoiibt, Not only in mi to oft the of bat to

Incto-C3iiBa to on Aft being by the h*d if or                Gould                be in Hie                of %? Had not or                tie                $mt

4**